Founder's Message

As we reflect on the past year, we celebrate a milestone in Jamghat's journey: 20 years of unwavering commitment to the children living on Delhi's streets. From our humble beginnings as a street theatre initiative, Jamghat has grown into a multifaceted organization, providing not only shelter but also education, emotional support, and opportunities for self-expression to hundreds of children who might otherwise remain invisible to society.

This year, has been particularly significant. We have strengthened our programs, expanded our reach, and deepened our impact. Our focus on holistic development and empowerment has continued to shape our approach, ensuring that each child receives the support, resources, and nurturing they need to thrive. Our journey has not been without challenges, yet the resilience and courage of the children we work with inspire us to keep moving forward.

A highlight of this year has been our use of theatre and the arts, a tradition embedded in Jamghat's origins, to empower and educate. Through workshops and performances, children learned not only to express their stories but also to develop confidence, discipline, and a sense of community. These activities have provided them with a voice and a platform to advocate for themselves and others.

Our achievements would not have been possible without the dedication of our team, the invaluable support of our donors, partners, and volunteers, and, most importantly, the determination of the children who put their trust in us. Together, we have built a safe and nurturing environment where every child can envision a brighter future.

Looking forward, we are committed to expanding our impact even further. We aim to strengthen our aftercare programs, enhance our educational support, and work more closely with communities to foster lasting change. The road ahead is challenging, but with the continued support of our partners and the strength of the Jamghat family, we believe that even greater transformation is within reach.

Thank you for being a part of Jamghat's journey over the last two decades. Here's to the next chapter of empowering lives and building futures.

With gratitude,

Amit Kumar Sinha

1. Introduction

1.1 Jamghat- A Creative Beginning

In 2003, Action Aid India forwarded a grant to design a play about life on the streets. Fourteen street children came together with Theatre artists Amit Sinha and Lokesh Jain, and their lives were forever changed. The play was performed for then visiting Prince Charles and was such a success that it travelled India and abroad for the next 3 months.

The experience nurtured self-confidence and a feeling of capability in the children. They realized this and refused to return to the streets. Despite lack of funds, they decided to live together and continue spreading awareness through theatre. Jamghat, a lively gathering, was born.

From this unplanned beginning, Jamghat has grown into the holistic organization it is today.

Established in 2003, Jamghat comprises of young adult professionals and volunteers with a variety of skills and experiences. We are a registered NGO that aims to help children living and working on the streets of Delhi to realize their dreams and re-join society by offering opportunities for street children and society alike to make changes in their lives. With the belief in the right of every child to have a full-fledged childhood where he/she has the right to protection, respect, opportunities and participation in his/her growth and development, we have been abiding by the principle of democracy and children's participation in decision making as part of its programme planning, monitoring and evaluation. Currently, we work at three centres – two children's homes & a day care centre for these vulnerable children along with a community outreach program at 05 location of old Delhi. This way we are reaching out to more than 250 children on a daily basis.

1.2 Our Vision, Mission, Values and Objectives

Our Vision

- To form a joyful, open, living, learning collectively that facilitates growth and takes care of street children's needs according to their age.
- To focus on quality and to nurture, empower street children Long Term.

Our Mission

To empower street children

To provide an environment where street children can evolve as physically and emotionally healthy, self-dependent individuals, living a life of their choice.

To use street and stage theatre to nurture self confidence in the children and build awareness in society on key social issues related to street children.

To take Ekjut to the next level as a brand, to empower street adolescents and adults with artisanal skills, to mentor them in becoming financially self-sustainable long term.

Our Values

- Non- violence
- Equality & Respect
- Democratic Participation
- Integrity
- Dignity / Humility
- Simplicity & Creativity
- Courage of Conviction

Our Objectives

- Provide a residential program to children who are without a safe home or family.
- Encourage and support reconciliation with families whenever possible.
- Connect street children and the larger population through volunteerism and theatre.
- Build volunteer and staff capacity to understand and address issues concerning street children.
- Create an environment where street children are respected as individuals working for their livelihood.

2. Programs and Initiatives

2.1. Children's Homes (Aanchal Home for Girls & Aman Home for Boys)

Aanchal Home, serves as a residential home for 11 girls. It provides a supportive and secure space where these girls can reside while pursuing their education. Aanchal home aims to create joyful collective learning environment for children by giving them quality education and ensuring their overall well-being. The girls at Aanchal home also benefit from mental health session, dance classes, martial art classes, tuition classes and other educational support provided by staff and volunteers.

Similarly, Aman home is a residential home specifically designed for 16 boys. These children are provided with a safe and nurturing environment where they can live, study and grow. The primary aim of Aman home is to ensure these children have stable living situation, which in turn enables them to focus on their education. Along with providing basic amenities, Aman home also offers tuition classes, dance classes, mental health session to help the children with their overall growth.

By addressing the needs of these children and youth, Jamghat is helping them break the cycle of poverty and improve their prospects for brighter future.

Children restored during 2023-24

The children have spent varying lengths of time in care, with admissions dating back as far as 2010 for two children from Aman Home, who came to Aman home at the tender age of 4 years and during their stay they continued their education from Rayan International school. There was more recent re-admission for one child in 2023 who was transferred to another home but on his request CWC re-transfer him to Aman home where he spent his formative years. Children were restored as they reached age of majority in year 2023 – 2024. The timeline reflects the structured care and reintegration process followed by both homes for the children under their care.

The table provides an overview of the admission and restoration or transfer timelines of children from Jamghat's two homes, Aanchal and Aman in this year.

Aanchal & Aman Highlights

- This year we supported one child in completing his 12th class while he stayed in aftercare facility of government. As child could not be restored with his family due to several reasons, Jamghat requested CWC to keep the child in aftercare home and supported his education fee while he attended regular classes in Rayan International School.
- This year marked the completion of all legal documents including Birth Certificates, Aadhaar, and Bank Accounts for the children who stayed in our homes.
- Children of Aanchal & Aman participated in Nakshartra, an annual Sports event for children living in Child Care Institution by BHUMI NGO. Children of both homes won prizes in various competitions.
- Children of both homes participated in drawing competition organised by HUDCO.
- Children of Aman home participated in a stage play performed by Jamghat children on occasion of 20th foundation day of Jamghat, at Shri Ram Centre of Arts, Delhi

Stories of Change

1. Jaanvi's Journey of Transformation: From Struggles to Success

Jaanvi (Name Changed to protect the identity), a resilient 17-year-old girl, currently lives at Jamghat's Aanchal Home for Girls. She joined Aanchal Home in 2021, transitioning from another CCI in Lajpat Nagar, bringing with her a story of strength and perseverance. Born into a challenging family situation, Jaanvi faced the loss of her father early in life, leaving her mother as the family's sole provider. Her mother now works in a CCI of Delhi, striving to support Jaanvi and her elder brother, who lives with their maternal grandparents.

Despite these hardships, Jaanvi's spirit shines brightly. Kind, sincere, and hardworking, she has emerged as a role model at Aanchal Home. With her natural leadership qualities, she has become a source of guidance and support for other children in the Child Care Institution (CCI), always ready to lend a hand or a listening ear.

When Jaanvi first arrived at Aanchal Home, she was facing academic setbacks, having been held back after failing her 9th-grade exams. However, with unwavering dedication and the consistent support of Jamghat's staff, Jaanvi's academic progress has been nothing short of extraordinary. Over the past three years, she has excelled in her studies, achieving a remarkable turnaround. Today, Jaanvi ranks 1st in Political Science in her class, and with an overall score of 71%, she is one of the top performers in her grade. Her success reflects the power of determination and the positive impact of the nurturing environment at Aanchal Home.

Jaanvi's achievements mirror Jamghat's mission to foster growth through care, guidance, and opportunity. In addition to her academic pursuits, she actively participates in arts and crafts, calligraphy, and sports, both indoor and outdoor. She also takes part in remedial classes and is a dedicated member of the Children's Committee, where she exemplifies leadership and provides valuable support to her peers. Jaanvi's involvement in these activities has enriched her learning experience, building her confidence and resilience.

Jaanvi dreams of becoming a teacher and is determined to continue her education. To support her ambitions, Jamghat is committed to enrolling her in a calligraphy class, preparing her for her upcoming board exams, and providing career counseling sessions. With this dedicated support, Jaanvi is well on her way to realizing her dreams and creating a bright future for herself.

Jaanvi's story is a testament to what can be achieved with determination, a supportive community, and the right opportunities. Her journey from struggle to success is an inspiration, embodying the spirit of hope and transformation at Jamghat's Aanchal Home.

2. "Empowering Dreams: Riyaz's Path from Aman Home to a Brighter Future"

Riyaz, a determined 17-year-old boy, has been a part of Aman Home for Boys, Jamghat, since 2010. Raised by a single parent, Riyaz's mother, works tirelessly as a housemaid in the Sadar Bazar area to provide for him. While she remarried and now lives with her husband, an artisan, she has maintained a strong bond with Riyaz, who remains close to his family.

Riyaz has always shown a deep dedication to his studies, and his academic record reflects his determination. Currently a Class 11 commerce student, Riyaz is particularly focused on excelling in Accounts. Recognizing his need for additional support in this subject, Jamghat arranged for him to receive tuition twice a week outside CCI. With the combined guidance of his home educator and the external coaching, Riyaz scored 54% in his recent PA-2 Exam in Accounts. His dedication is clear, and he is striving to reach new academic heights.

Jamghat has been instrumental in ensuring that Riyaz has a secure foundation for his future. His essential legal documents, including his Aadhaar Card, bank account, and birth certificate, have all been completed. At Aman Home for Boys, he has received not only education but also food, shelter, counseling, and emotional support, creating a nurturing environment that has helped him thrive. Riyaz's connection to his family and relatives has remained intact, further strengthening his sense of belonging and support.

As Riyaz turned 18 in January 2023, he began his transition to independence. In May, 2023, after completing Class 11 final exams, he was transferred to government aftercare home. Jamghat has continued to support Riyaz's education even after he transitioned from the CCI. Now a Class 12 student at Ryan International School, he is pursuing his studies with a clear vision for his future. Riyaz's journey at Aman Home reflects the impact of compassionate support and guidance in transforming lives. His perseverance and commitment to growth are an inspiration, underscoring the mission of Jamghat to empower young individuals to build a brighter future.

2.2. Aangan – Day Care Centre

Founded in 2008, Aangan Day Care Centre in Daryaganj serves as a joyful, secure place for street children to spend their days, fostering their holistic development. Every morning at 10:00 AM, the centre opens its doors, welcoming children into a vibrant space filled with opportunity and care. Supported by our partnership with Asha for Education (St. Louis) and several other generous donors, Aangan is committed to offering more than basic care—it's a place where every child can truly feel safe and thrive.

At Aangan, children benefit from a comprehensive program designed to support their overall well-being. We provide nutritious meals, bathing facilities, secure lockers, and a nurturing environment that allows each child to feel valued and safe. Our curriculum is designed with a range of activities aimed at promoting growth, including non-formal education, personal hygiene lessons, time management skills, and engaging arts like theatre, dance, yoga, and painting.

Children here immerse themselves in activities that support their physical, emotional, and intellectual development. Indoors, they participate in interactive games, workshops, and artistic projects, while receiving tailored educational support. The centre also focuses on essential life skills and awareness, such as safe touch education, anti-violence workshops, and literacy programs—all essential for building resilience and confidence.

For those with aspirations beyond the day centre, Jamghat provides support for vocational training and higher education opportunities, ensuring these children have pathways to a brighter future. At Aangan, each child's day is filled with learning, fun, and the encouragement they need to thrive, empowering them to become healthy, well-rounded individuals.

Total No of children			112

During the year total of 112 children benefited from this centre. The majority of the children (71%) who visited Aangan are in the younger age group of 6 to 12 years, with 80 out of the total 112 children. The 13 to 18 age group comprises only 29% of the population, totalling 32 children. Out of 112 children, 66 are boys (59%) and 46 are girls (41%). In 6 to 12 Age group boys make up a larger portion of this age group with 47 boys (59%) compared to 33 girls (41%). Similarly, in 13 to 18 Age Group boys constitute a larger share with 19 boys (59%) and 13 girls (41%).

Since Aangan centre currently do not serve those aged 18 and above, it could consider preparing transition programs for older adolescents as they approach adulthood. We can also include aftercare planning, career counseling, and partnerships with vocational training centres to support their transition out of day care.

No. of school going children	38
No. of non-school going children	74

Out of total 112 children who were connected to Aangan in this year, 38 children are enrolled in regular school while 74 children are not going school due to various reasons.

Priority Area	Progress on that Area	Challenges In that Area	Learning in that Area
Education (Non-Formal)	At Aangan, our educators, caretakers, and volunteers make learning engaging and enjoyable through a variety of methods. We use Teaching Learning Materials (TLM), storytelling, exposure visits, theatre art &amp; craft to make education fun. For those who need extra support, we offer remedial classes as per to their needs. Senior children also come to Aangan to work on their school assignments. We strive to create a safe space for them, assist with their education, and help reconnect them with schools if they've previously dropped out.	Due to limited staff, we struggle to effectively manage 40-45 children with varying ages, needs, and interests.	The staff gained a deeper understanding of the meaning of education, exploring various activities and methodologies through training sessions. They also took the time to reflect on their own behaviour patterns, as well as the children's, identifying areas of weakness while staying focused on the vision, mission, and strengths of Jamghat.
Safe & Joyful Environment	At Aangan, children learn by celebrating special days like Earth Day, Yoga Day, and Environment Day. They participate in activities such as Cleanliness drives, Teachers' Day celebrations, film screenings, art workshops, and games. They also explore topics like global warming through storytelling. We also organize a "Summer Camp" at the Aangan Centre, featuring activities like, dance classes, fun base mathematics assessment various games. The camp includes movie screenings of films such as Migration, Udaan, and Madam Geeta, followed by discussions on the importance of education, dedication, and	One of the challenges we face is the need for more specialized educators and staff who can deeply understand the diverse backgrounds and unique challenges of the children we serve. Having professionals who are not only skilled in their fields but also empathetic to the children's experiences is crucial to effectively addressing their needs and fostering a supportive environment.	To address these challenges, we plan to hold regular discussions with children in need, ensuring their concerns are heard and understood. we aim to establish a structured and engaging environment that directly responds to these challenges, fostering a supportive atmosphere for their growth and development. creating safe spaces.

Health & Nutrition	To support the health and optimal growth of the children at Aangan, we provide them with daily meals, including breakfast, lunch, and evening snacks, every day except Sunday. We monitor the children's health by checking their BMI quarterly and make periodic adjustments to the food menu as needed. During special occasions such as Diwali, Eid, Holi, Teacher's day and other festivals, we arrange festive lunches to celebrate together with the children. Sessions on self-hygiene and handwashing are regularly conducted at Aangan to raise awareness and promote good hygiene practices among the children.	Overall, we provide two meals daily to 100 street children. However, there are times when some children are unable to receive their meals due to various reasons, such as attending to work or other personal circumstances.

Program Highlights:

- In June, Aangan Daycare held a vibrant summer camp where students from Mata Sundari College and Jamia University actively participated alongside the children. Together, they engaged in a range of activities, including educational games, dance, theatre, and music, making learning fun and interactive. The camp concluded with a showcase on the final day, where the children proudly presented the projects, they had worked on throughout the camp.
- In month of August, Aangan Day Care held a lively Mela that was open to everyone, organized by both the children and staff. The children were actively involved in every part of the event, from planning to execution, making it a real team effort. The Mela had various stalls with games, tasty food, and handmade crafts, all made by the children, showcasing their creativity and hard work.
- Jamghat celebrated its 20th anniversary at Shri Ram Centre, where the children from Aangan performed a theatre piece under the guidance of Mr. Lokesh co-founder of Jamghat. The performance was outstanding and received much appreciation. The event was attended by Jamghat's well-wishers and donors. The auditorium, with a capacity of 400 people, was filled to the brim, and the interest in the play was so overwhelming that some attendees had to wait outside due to the limited seating.
- Forty-eight of our school-going children achieved academic success, passing their exams and advancing to the next grade, ready to take on new challenges and opportunities
- This year, we reached out to 112 children, offering them a safe and secure environment at Aangan Daycare, where they could thrive and grow in a nurturing space.
- Children from Aangan Daycare participated in a cricket match organized by DMRC and emerged as winner of tournament. One of our children was awarded a trophy for his outstanding performance in the match.
- Three of our children proudly passed their 10th grade CBSE board exams, marking a significant milestone in their academic journey.

Stories of Change- Aangan

1. Sapna Overcoming Struggles Through ‘Art’ and ‘Support’

Sapna’s (name changed to protect identity) life has been marked by significant challenges. Living near Park Number 5, Jama Masjid, her family has faced years of hardship. After the death of her biological father, Sapna’s stepfather, a rickshaw driver, struggled with substance abuse and gambling, while her mother supported the family by scavenging and begging. Sapna, too, contributes by assisting her mother. The family endures difficult living conditions which severely impacts her physical and emotional development.

Sapna joined Jamghat’s Aangan centre about three years ago, seeking refuge from her harsh realities. Although initially, engaging her in the centre’s activities was challenging due to her own struggles with substance abuse, Jamghat remained committed to supporting her. Despite attending several counselling sessions, Sapna continued to face difficulties with addiction. However, as Jamghat started offering her a variety of engaging options and actively involving her in art, craft, and colouring—areas where Sapna showed a natural interest—the transformation began.

The focus on creative outlets, coupled with consistent support, led to a remarkable reduction in her substance use. Today, Sapna is a regular attendee at the Aangan centre, where she enthusiastically participates in all activities. She has even become a positive influence on her peers, helping other children and showing a significant improvement in her behaviour and overall well-being.

Sapna's story is a testament to the power of dedicated care, patience, and the right opportunities. Through Jamghat's Day Care support, Sapna is steadily moving toward a healthier, more hopeful future, where her potential can truly flourish.

2.3. SADAK Project

The Sadak Project was initiated in July 2021 with the support of the Azim Premji Foundation, covering areas such as Mithai Pul 1, Mithai Pul 2, Shastri Park, Shanti Van 1, and Shanti Van 2, starting with 180 children. In the first year, we focused on building relationships with the children and parents in the community to better understand their issues and challenges.

Project Overview

SADAK, our outreach project is to connect with street children and their families. The program is first step in the journey of these children to change their course of life. It is important to conduct such an outreach program at the location where children are based because being used to life on the street, neither children nor their parents are motivated nor interested in coming to a full-day centre. Sadak is an interactive program for six days a week using remedial classes, theatre, visual arts, martial art, counselling, parent interaction and life skills sessions as core activities.

Project Objectives:

1. Educational Continuity: Ensure 95% of school-going children at the start of Year 2 continue their schooling until the end of Year 3, with a 20% improvement in academic performance across all five locations.
2. Safety and Well-being: Protect children from harmful and dangerous circumstances.
3. Preparation for Dignified Life: Provide education and vocational skills to prepare children for a dignified life and livelihood.
4. Community Engagement: Encourage parents, teachers, and the community to recognize the importance of education in children's lives and actively support

Communities Served:

- Bihari Colony (Shastri Park): Serving 30 children from families engaged in street vending, rickshaw pulling, and daily wage work. Education levels are low, with many children dropping out after 5th or 8th grade.
- Mithai Pul (Sadar Bazar): Targeting 60 children living in slums near railway tracks. Most parents are street vendors or daily wage earners, with children often helping in their businesses.
- Mithai Pul 2 (Sadar Bazar): Reaching 30 children with similar backgrounds to Mithai Pul 1, focusing on school-going children and their support needs.

Key Activities:

- Educational Linkages: Motivating children to pursue education, re-enrol dropouts, and provide remedial education. Regular tracking of attendance and academic progress is conducted.
- Theatre: Conducting theatre sessions to build confidence and develop skills, culminating in quarterly performances on local issues.

Counselling: Offering counselling services to help children cope with past trauma and build resilience.

- Life Skills: Conducting 48 socio-emotional learning sessions over three years to develop self-esteem, emotional management, and relationship-building.
- Art and Craft: Using creative expression as a tool for emotional healing and participation in local development issues.
- Sports & Games: Engaging children through sports to build rapport and trust with facilitators.
- Community Engagement: Monthly parent-child meetings, quarterly awareness camps, and workshops on child rights to foster community support for children's education.
- Staff Training: Capacity building on teaching methodologies and sensitization of teachers to the challenges faced by street children.

In year 2023-24, we successfully delivered various activities, including remedial education, theatre, art and craft, and counseling, reaching out to 204 children. Currently, 112 children are actively engaged, with 53 boys and 59 girls. These children live with their parents in slum communities connected to streets, and many of these children are connected to schools.

This year, we also prioritized capacity building for both staff and children. We conducted several training sessions on topics such as child rights, the Juvenile Justice Act, gender equality, and health and hygiene. These trainings significantly boosted the confidence of our staff, leading to successful school admissions and the issuance of Aadhar cards for some children.

Key Achievements

- Participation in the monthly parents' meetings from all current locations exceeds 80%, indicating a strong understanding among parents about the project's significance. But in the monthly parents meeting only mothers attend the meetings and discuss the importance of education, growth of the child, update about the program, role of the parents in children's education, how community participation plays roles and more according to need of the month.
- From the community, women actively engage in activities such as festivals, celebrations and exposure visits. In the community, we celebrate Holi, Diwali, Eid, Women's Day, Independence Day, children's Day, etc. to encourage strong relationship among each other.

- Parents are now accompanying educators to schools to enrol their children, demonstrating a deep understanding of the importance of education and a willingness to advocate for their children's schooling.
- In areas like Mithai Pul & Shastri Park, where initially children lacked motivation for school, educators have successfully enrolled 36 dropout or never-enrolled children. Some children still don't have Aadhar cards and birth certificates and their admissions are under process.
- Due to remedial sessions, many children who did not attend school or had weak reading skills have started reading.
- Children's confidence has notably increased through participation in Sadak sessions, and acquiring skills in theatre, Arts and crafts, and martial arts. Children performed martial arts at Rajiv Gandhi Foundation (Jawahar Bhawan). Some theatre performances on health and Hygiene, the importance of education, Saving the girl child, road safety, child rights, and the disadvantages of mobile phones were also conducted by children in their own communities.
- Following the demolition of the Shanti Van location, one of the children from community took initiative and started teaching younger children, showcasing the project's positive ripple effect. Now, these kinds of impacts are seen in every location, with children taking the lead in the absence of educators and helping to handle younger children during the activities.
- The project has had a tangible impact on children's behaviour, transitioning from frequent fights and verbal abuse to demonstrating respect and support for one another.
- From January 2024 we started to work at Shastri Park and Mithai Pul 1 with two educators, and we observed the positive changes in both locations as with 2 staffing centres were managed smoothly. We have initiated a family strengthening program by assisting families in obtaining necessary legal documents. As a result, some children's first bank accounts were opened, while others have been successfully enrolled in school for the first time
- Through the Sadak project, we made legal documents such as Ration cards, PAN cards, Aadhar cards, window pensions, medical certificates, and Bank accounts of more than 40 children and parents.
- A woman lost her Aadhar card and PAN card 12 years ago and our educator helped her to remake her documents and she managed to get both her IDs.
- Education is the first and the most important tool to bring a positive impact on children's lives it not only breaks the cycle of poverty but boosts the confidence of the children and teaches them how to live their lives. If children are in school this is the major indicator that children will remain protected from the different form of exploitations such as child labour, child marriage, abuse of various forms etc. In every monthly parent meeting our team talks about the children's education and motivates parents to send their children regularly to the school.
- For the Sadak project, we collaborate with some organizations so that, if we need any kind of support, we can do it mutually. We collaborated with theatre group Khel Tamasha, National Science Museum, Art reach and others.
- General Health check of 77 children by General physician – Dr. Himanshu Saini and Dental health check-up on 111 children by Dr. Mohd Shariq was conducted.

2.4. Theatre

Children of Aangan Day Care, Aman home & Staff performing stage play on occasion of 20th Anniversary of Jamghat, at Shriram Centre for Performing Arts, Mandi House

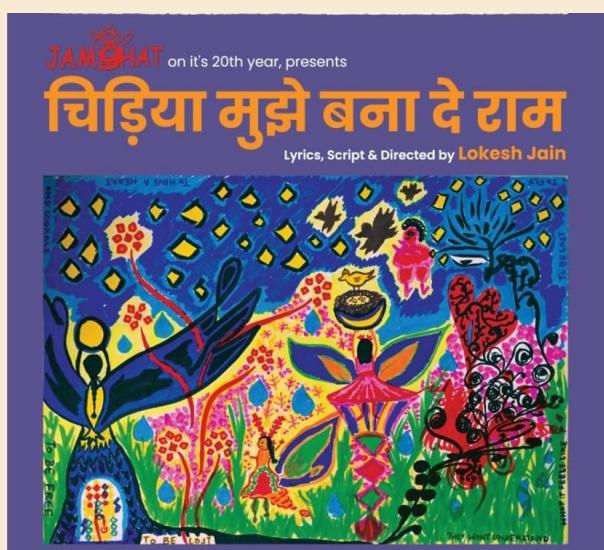

Performing Arts, Mandi House

With its roots in theatre, Jamghat has spent the last 20 years using drama as a powerful medium to raise awareness on social issues and empower young people. Theatre activities at Jamghat offer children the chance to engage in dramatic performances, honing their communication skills, creativity, and self-expression. Through rehearsals, acting workshops, script readings, and stage performances, children and adults alike experience personal growth, boosted self-confidence, and a strong sense of teamwork. Jamghat's commitment to theatre continues to be a transformative force, inspiring self-discovery and resilience in all who participate.

Throughout the year, Jamghat partnered with several organizations to raise awareness on important issues, reaching over 10,000 people directly. These collaborations enabled Jamghat to expand its impact, engaging diverse communities and fostering a deeper understanding of social challenges. Through workshops, events, and street plays, Jamghat empowered individuals to take positive action within their communities.

Stage Play- 'Chidiya Mujhey Bana Dey Ram'

On occasion of 20th Year celebration, children and staff of Jamghat presented a stage play 'Chidiya Mujhey Bana Dey Ram'. The play was scripted and directed by Mr. Lokesh Jain one of the founders of Jamghat and a seasoned theatre veteran. For three months, under his guidance children engaged in intensive rehearsals, gaining a deep understanding of performing arts while also building confidence, discipline, and teamwork. Alongside mastering stage presence and voice modulation, they developed skills in time management, problem-solving, and creative expression. The experience also fostered resilience and a sense of responsibility, as they worked together to bring their vision to life.

Performed by street children at the Shri Ram Centre for Performing Arts, the play explores the hopes and struggles of childhood in a bustling city. Through vivid scenes, the play portrayed a city full of crowds rushing in all directions, where cars seem more valued than people and roads endlessly connect yet go nowhere. Against this backdrop, the innocence of childhood searches for meaning, symbolized by a little bird seeking a place to build its nest—a sanctuary amidst the noise and dust.

The bird's journey reflects the children's dreams to find love, warmth, and shelter, to play, dance, and sing in a place they can call home. Amid smoke-filled skies, they yearn to spot stars and chase rainbows in search of colours that feel out of reach. The play captures the beauty and fragility of childhood, likened to a bubble filled with dreams, and the resilience of young spirits who dare to dream against all odds.

In the darkness, a solitary voice sings, "Let the bird make me Ram, put small wings, Ram, let's fly away, Ram," a call to rise above hardship and a hope for wings to carry them toward freedom and belonging. This poignant performance shines a light on the dreams of street children, reminding us of their desire to soar beyond the concrete jungle, the metro city.

The children of Jamghat gave a powerful second performance of 'Chidiya Mujhey Bana Dey Ram' on Children's Day at Jawahar Bhawan, during an event organized by the Rajiv Gandhi Foundation. In addition to the play, the children showcased their skills in a Jujutsu performance, adding to the day's celebrations. This martial arts demonstration highlighted their physical skills and was met with enthusiastic applause, reinforcing the confidence and skills the children have developed through Jamghat's interventions.

Together, these performances underscored the transformative impact of creative expression and discipline in the lives of these young individuals, leaving the audience inspired and deeply moved.

Play at annual event of Taj Sats

As part of Jamghat's theatre initiatives, 17 children from the Aangan Daycare Centre had the unique opportunity to perform at the Taj Sats Annual Day Celebrations. The group, comprising nine girls and eight boys, showcased a powerful play titled Patri Par Bachpan, which drew attention to the realities of childhood on the streets. Their heartfelt performance on the grand stage was well received, with the audience offering enthusiastic applause and best wishes.

This experience, supported by Taj Sats, not only boosted the children's morale but also provided them with a memorable opportunity for self-expression, confidence-building, and growth. The entire event was a testament to the power of theatre in transforming lives and creating meaningful connections within the community.

Theatre Workshops

This year, we proudly continued our partnership with Srijan Mahila Vikas Sangathan in Koderma, Jharkhand, where we facilitated two impactful week-long theatre workshops—one with 20 children in Koderma and another with 20 girls from a Child Care Institution (CCI) in Chaibasa. Through the medium of theatre, these workshops provided a platform for young participants to creatively address and shed light on pressing issues such as female foeticide, child marriage, and molestation, sparking vital awareness and dialogue within their communities.

The workshop in Chaibasa culminated in a powerful performance by the girls of the CCI. Their audience included influential stakeholders, with members from the Child Welfare Committee (CWC) and the District Child Protection Unit (DCPU) in attendance, as well as 250 children from the CCI. Witnessing the performance allowed these community leaders to see firsthand the strength and courage of the children as they shared difficult truths and sought to inspire a commitment to change.

Through these workshops, we aim not only to raise awareness but also to empower children to become advocates within their own communities. We hope that by encouraging dialogue and inspiring action, we can all work together to address and overcome these societal challenges.

2.5. Nutrition Support (For street/homeless children)

Over nearly two decades, Jamghat has witnessed the complex and often overwhelming challenges of homelessness in the Old Delhi area. Unfortunately, despite continuous interventions, the number of homeless adults and children has only grown, reflecting a broader need for sustainable solutions and ongoing community support. Through the Nutrition Support program, supported by iPartner UK Jamghat aims to not only meet the immediate needs of these children but also create a foundation for improved health and stability, contributing to their overall well-being and growth amid challenging circumstances.

Under the project, distribution of breakfast and lunch was being done to 100 street children in Meena Bazar and Urdu Park locations of Jama Masjid. As per plan 65 children were provided food in community while 35 children from this community were served at Aangan Day Care. Nutrition support to these children was provided from Monday to Saturday and every day 02 meals are served as per the menu.

Between April 2023 and March 2024, Jamghat provided a total of 55,210 meals to children, consisting of 27,183 breakfasts and 28,027 lunches. This indicates a balanced distribution of meals aimed at ensuring both morning and midday nutrition for children in need.

The nearly equal number of breakfasts and lunches highlights our consistent effort to address nutritional needs throughout the day, supporting the children's health and well-being. With over 55,000 meals served in a single year, this program showcases a significant commitment to combating hunger and supporting vulnerable children in the community. This sustained meal support likely played a critical role in enabling these children to focus on education and other developmental activities provided by Jamghat.

3. Acknowledgments

Like every year this year too we strengthened our ability to support the children in our programs through meaningful partnerships and collaborations with a diverse range of organizations, agencies, and individuals. These partnerships have been instrumental in expanding the reach and impact of Jamghat's work, allowing us to offer a more holistic and sustainable approach to addressing the needs of vulnerable children.

Each collaboration brought unique expertise and resources, from educational support and healthcare services to skill development and recreational activities. Together, these contributions have enriched our programs and provided the children with new opportunities for growth and empowerment.

We extend our deepest gratitude to every supporter who has joined us in this journey. Your dedication and generosity have been essential in helping us build a brighter future for these children.

3.3. Volunteer Engagement

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to volunteers for their unwavering commitment and extraordinary efforts. Their invaluable contributions have been essential to Jamghat's success in transforming the lives of street children. Through their compassion, hard work, and dedication, they have enabled these vulnerable children to access vital support, education, and opportunities for a brighter future.

Each volunteer has been a driving force behind the impact we strive to create, bringing hope and positive change to the lives of the children we serve. We are deeply grateful for their selfless commitment and support, which continue to shape a meaningful difference in these children's lives. Together, we are building a brighter future for every child in our care.
